

out, Humanity ~~should~~ ^{its} untroubled by ~~these~~ ^{its} overwhelming horrors, would do away with Oppression of all kinds, Negro-hatred, Drunkenness & War sooner than it can now. The pulpit will not speak out, even for in--partial Justice & Equal Rights, in-spection of Color & Race.

By the way - What has possessed Con-
-men Belbay, S. B. Anthony & Elizabeth Cady Stanton, to take the cause of Equal Rights, & the recus of their new paper -
The Revolution, with that unpunished Maxwellton & Proggadane George Frolics hair? Repeatedly to my friends has he gone from their mee-tings when he was put forward as the Lion of the occasion & smacked & seduced them & their cause? Is he the Corresponding Editor of the Revolution? I cannot have much respect for their sincerity when Dokey, Person & E. L. Stanton, talk so loudly about Justice & Equality, while they make that crazy ~~and~~ Coat their right hand man. He spares no occasion to smack at Negro huffrage, & extol the Democratic Policy of the predication & a White Morish.
Government.

I hope to see & hear you once more.
Could you not send a line to Bela Morish, Boston & let me know if you will be at Home tuesday Evening, Feb. 25th? Henry C. Wright

123 Cleveland, Dec. 14/64.

W. L. Garrison

Dear William

My arrangements are all made to leave Cleveland next Monday. Feb. 21st for Boston to reach there by Tuesday evening. If in time to do so, I will call out, & spend the Evening, & the Night, if perfectly convenient.

All my life - have I been accustomed to show my Interior & Exterior life with you. Dear William! Since the close of our A. Society work - I have been alone, temper-tortured & driven. I cannot show my thoughts & feelings on all subjects with any other being as I can & have done with thee.

I really feel today, as I have for 40 years, that if the Religion of the Church & Priesthood could be lotted